The stunning setting of the European Alps offers world class ski touring in abundance and our Chamonix Ski Touring Weekend is the perfect short weekend ski getaway or ideal warm-up to ensure you are up-to-date with the skills and competencies required to safely and successfully negotiate the backcountry.

From our comfortable base in Chamonix, our knowledgeable guides will teach or refresh the essential techniques for travelling in glaciated terrain, honing your skills, fine-tuning your equipment and setting you up to be ready for a longer guided ski tour; or simply guiding you through some of Chamonix's backcountry touring highlights—the choice is yours.

This trip can be designed as a precursor to one of Europe's iconic multi-day ski touring journeys, such as the Haute Route Ski Tour, or as a standalone guided ski touring adventure, exploring some of the many backbowls and accessible terrain around the Chamonix region, under the watchful eye and expert guidance of our fully qualified and experienced IFMGA mountain and ski guides.

HISTORY

The European Alps are full of climbing and skiing history. They are the birthplace of mountaineering and their rich heritage adds to the superb facilities, including catered huts and lift systems, which provide catering for mountaineers and ski tourers not seen elsewhere.

SKILLS COVERED

Chamonix is bestowed with multiple possibilities for ski touring. Your guide will suggest an itinerary based on your experience, goals and snow conditions in the area. For those looking for a skills based weekend we can incorporate the teaching of the following skills:

- Avalanche awareness and safety procedures
- Transceiver usage
- Skinning technique
- Kick turns
- Safe glacier travel

OUR GUIDES

Adventure Consultants guides are BMG, NZMGA and/or IFMGA-UIAGM qualified mountain and ski guides. They are professional mountaineers and operate to the highest industry standards.

Being a technically proficient climber or skier is not enough to work with us; our standards demand that trip leaders are great guides with good people skills as well. You will find your guide friendly, approachable and focused on providing a safe and enjoyable trip in line with your objectives and comfort level.

Success with the highest margin of care is always a hallmark of our approach; promoting the realisation that even extreme pursuits such as high-altitude mountaineering can be undertaken safely.

Adventure Consultants only employs IFMGA qualified guides for European ascents and courses. Guides must undergo rigorous training and assessment on climbing skills, instructional skills, avalanche training and assessment, wilderness first aid, rescue training and much more to gain these qualifications. It takes many years to attain IFMGA status, which ensures you are getting a world-class professional service.

PREREQUISITE EXPERIENCE

To ski tour in the European Alps you will need to be able to link parallel turns in all types of snow conditions and be physically fit. However, previous ski touring experience is not a pre-requisite for this trip.

Please note that skiing and climbing even at moderate altitudes in Europe has a definite physical effect on people. Most climbers and skiers notice a lower performance rate than normal. Ski touring days are physically demanding and can entail a 1,000m/3,300ft ascent at altitude.

TEAM MEMBERSHIP

The number of guides is determined by the size of the group, the ratio of guides to skiers is 1:1 up to 1:6 depending on the skill level and intentions of the group.

DETAILED ITINERARY

Day 0

Arrive in Chamonix and overnight at hotel.

Day 1

L'Aiguillette des Houches (2,285m/7,497ft). From the village of Coupeau, we begin the weekend with a gentle ascent through the forests, providing a good warm up that takes us up past Chalet de Chailloux. After some avalanche transceiver training, the open slopes offer ample opportunities to work on the competencies required for your upcoming tour, as well as taking us up to one of the best viewpoints of the entire Chamonix valley. Return to Chamonix, overnight hotel.

Day 2

Vallée Blanche and Col d'Entrèves (3,527m/11,572ft). From the Aiguille du Midi, we ski down the classic Vallée Blanche to Pointe Adolphe Rey, checking our kick turns before donning our skins and climbing for 2 hours up to the Col d'Entrèves on the Italian border. Here we have time to work on additional ski touring skills and techniques, making the most of the instructional time with your guide before we take our final run down the majestic Vallée Blanche and head back to Chamonix for a celebratory meal. Depart for home or continue on to an Adventure Consultants ski tour.

journey each way takes about 1.5 hours. Although the shuttle transfers are at your own cost, we are happy to help you arrange transport and your shuttle driver will drop you off and pick you back up at your accommodation.

INSURANCE

We strongly recommend that you take out Trip Cancellation Insurance and Travel Insurance, as well as Medical and Rescue Insurance to protect yourself in the event of injury or mishap prior to or during your trip.
